provides tourists with a unique and intimate experience of enjoying the natural beauty of Nova Scotia in a 4x4 Jeep

The Famous Annapolis Valley ...

This tour features a drive from Halifax to the Annapolis Valley along the Evangeline trail. Enjoy picturesque French-speaking Acadian villages and travel through the rich farmland, orchards and wine-country tapestry of the Annapolis Valley. Your tour in the Open Top Jeep features visits at three wineries including tastings of unique and local wines and stops with great views.

Our route out of Halifax takes you along the waterfront area where you will see various sites including the Marketplace, Canadian Naval Ships, Ship Yards and more. Travel under the two bridges connecting Halifax to Dartmouth. Cross over the MacKay Bridge and see the sights of Halifax and Dartmouth along with the Coast Guard Ships and the beautiful Bedford Basin.

Your tour will continue out of Halifax first along the highway then along the Evangeline trail to Avonport with some stops for great photos. Take note of the famous tidal waters as we travel along the Minas Basin where the world famous tides that rise to 54 feet. Our first stop for wine tasting is in Grande Pre then we will travel to Canning to the Look Off to gaze below at the Annapolis Valley from high above. Traveling back down into the valley we will wind our way through the countryside to our second winery. We will then drive through Wolfville, home of Acadia University, as we make our way to our last wine tasting venue. Lastly, sit back, relax and enjoy the scenery as we make our way back to Halifax to return you safely to your drop off destination.

Driver may adjust your route and stops depending on time constraints, weather, and client's wishes.

Gratuities are not included and are appreciated
